

Tobacco and Cannabis Awareness & Prevention Conference

Learn about the latest research on youth tobacco and cannabis use including trends, use of products, strategies to strengthen our community, and current prevention efforts in Tehama County.

Who should attend?

- Parents
- School Administrators
- Law Enforcement
- Educators
- Community Based Organizations
- Anyone working with youth and families.

March 07, 2024
9:30am-12:00pm

Red Bluff Community Center, 1500 S. Jackson St.
West Side Room

Register Here!

Presenters:

Kimberlee Homer Vagadori – California Youth Advocacy Network

Kim successfully coordinated systemwide policy initiatives in California. and provides training to local, state, and national organizations on issues such as tobacco and the environment, emerging tobacco products, campus-based tobacco treatment services, and tobacco industry targeting youth and young adults.

Officer Rosas – Red Bluff Police Department

Officer Rosas provides education to youth on the dangers of cannabis use among youth and marijuana trends.

Caitlin teNyenhui – Tehama County Landfill

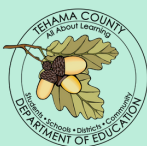

Got confiscated devices in your drawer? Hear from our local landfill on how to properly dispose of electronic devices.

Tobacco Education and Community Health Coalition

Review of current prevention efforts in Tehama County, including merchant accountability.

TEACH
Tobacco Education and Community Health Coalition

TUPE
Programs

Questions?

Call: (530) 528.7391

Email: ymoreno@tehamaschools.org